DAY 2:
Brussels, Belgium

Savour in a delightful breakfast to fuel your day of exploration. The Golfers will head out to their first course:

THE ONLY LINKS COURSE IN BELGIUM: Royal Ostend Golf Club

*It was King Leopold II who, at the end of the 19th Century, understood that the establishment of a golf course would further enhance the attraction of Ostend to British visitors. The course was designed by the Scottish American golf architect Seymour Dunn according to the then prevailing Anglo-Saxon standards. It was solemnly inaugurated on July 1st 1903. Both the golf course and the clubhouse were completely destroyed during the First World War and subsequently rebuilt, only to be destroyed again during the Second World War. Thankfully the course was painstakingly restored and the club was re-inaugurated on July 7th 1948. The Royal Ostend Golf Club is the only links course in Belgium. In 2015 Royal Ostend was awarded the prestigious Baillet Latour Prize for the Environment. *Carts Included*

Non-golfers will head out to a Scenic Ghent Canal Cruise. A scenic ride through the charming Flemish countryside takes you to Ghent, a delightful town that is proud of its medieval heritage. Your walking tour starts at the center of the medieval city of Ghent, at St. Michaels Bridge, with its view of Ghent's three glorious medieval steeples. Your guide will lead you to the pontoon where you'll board a canal boat for a fun and thorough exploration of the city. As you cruise through the historic city, see highlights such as the impressive castle of the counts, the Fish Market, 13th century monasteries and the ancient port of Ghent along with its mercantile houses. Once your canal cruise ends, you'll have free time to independently explore this gracious city. You may choose to enjoy a locally brewed beer in one of the stylish bars, or maybe a coffee in one of the waffle houses. Strolling along the narrow streets, many of which are pedestrian, you'll be enthralled by the unique architecture, while the shops will tempt you with their fine chocolates, flemish lace and other locally-crafted wares.

DAY 3:
Amsterdam,
Netherlands

Golfers, your second round awaits at:

THE OLDEST COLT COURSE IN THE NETHERLANDS: The Kennemer Golf Course
With great diligence, a 9-hole course was built in Santpoort opposite the Duin & Kruidberg estate. Two dune holes and seven holes in the meadows, through which the Haarlem-Alkmaar railway line ran. The stately Huis te Velsen was converted into a clubhouse. In the summer of 1911, the course and clubhouse of the Kennemer Golf Club were officially opened. The famous English golf course architect Harry Shapland Colt was asked to design the new course. The design is widely acclaimed to this day. The clubhouse and the interior, designed in English cottage style by the leading architect of country houses at the time, AP Smits, blend harmoniously into the hilly dune landscape. In 1985, the expansion with nine new holes, the Van Hengel Course (A), is completed. With the Pennink Course (B) and the Colt Course (C), the Kennemer has since had a 27-hole course. De Kennemer has hosted numerous national and international competitions: 23 International Open Championships and five International Ladies Opens were held.
**Carts included.*

Non-golfers embark on a charming half day tour which begins with a scenic drive through the Dutch countryside to the village of Zaandam. Arriving at the village, you will be lead through the faithfully re-created town of Zaanse Schans. This carefully designed open air museum was built to replicate the Zaan community of around 1700 and today is a very popular attraction. As you stroll through the cobbled streets watching craftsmen practicing the trades of yesterday, you'll get a glimpse of what Dutch life was once like.

A short scenic drive takes you to the tranquil 17th century town of Edam, best known for its distinctive Edam cheese. Enjoy a short walking tour past picturesque canals, traditional drawbridges and charming homes with overflowing flower gardens. Then, you'll have some free time; perhaps you'll want to use the time to further explore this delightful town on your own, or purchase a special souvenir as a memento of your visit.

DAY 4:
At Sea

Breakfast will be served on the NCL Prima. You can enjoy the day at leisure after a busy few days. You will be spoiled for choice as you get to explore the many activities available on the ship. Let the conversation and the cabernet flow at the outdoor bar. Feel the gentle sea breeze as you relax in a cabana at Indulge Outdoor Lounge. Or get into a livelier groove as you enjoy a craft cocktail whilst listening to live music at The Local Bar & Grill. Perhaps you might prefer to just relax and rejuvenate at the breathtaking Mandara Spa.

DAY 5:
Geiranger,
Norway

Welcome in Geiranger, Norway! Once upon a time, there was a land with majestic, snow-covered mountain peaks, wild waterfalls and lush, green vegetation... ..It's not just a fairytale, though. In the Geirangerfjord area, it's reality! Whether hiking or sightseeing, you are guaranteed to appreciate the stunning views in this UNESCO-listed area in Fjord Norway. Stay for a while, and explore on your own - there is so much to do! You can choose from a variety of thrilling or more relaxed sightseeing activities to do in Geiranger.

FUN FACT: Geiranger is the third biggest cruise ship port in Norway, receiving 140 to 180 ships during the four-month tourist season.

(B, L, D, Drinks) Hotel: NCL Prima

DAY 6:
Bergen, Norway

Enjoy a delightful breakfast onboard the ship before the golfers are transferred to their next round.

ONE OF THE MOST CHALLENGING COURSES IN SCANDINAVIA: Meland Golf Club
Meland Golf Club is located to the north of Bergen and its 18 holes are set in a stunning fjord location. Meland is already receiving accolades as one of Europe's best new venues and the course looks good, with a unique setting among forests, lakes and mountains. Designed by Robert A. Hunt of PGA Management and opened in 1999, the 6,823 yard, par 73 Meland course is laid out on sandy, peaty soil with free draining qualities that ensure it stays open, whatever the wet weather, throughout an April to November playing season. Meland's 225-acre site in Nordhordaland is still relatively immature but, like all the best things in life, it will obviously improve with age.
**Carts included.*

Non-golfers head out to an excursion to Hardanger Fjord. One of the favourites among the many Norwegian fjords. It's the 3rd largest fjord in the world and the 2nd largest in Norway. A scenic drive takes you by the fortress of Bergenhus, King Hakon's Hall and the Rosenkrantz Tower. Pass by the buildings of the Hanseatic period and the fish market of Bergen. Continue to the Bjornefjord, where you'll have a short drive along the fjord with lovely views of islands and snowcapped mountains in the distance.

A short ferry ride takes you from Hatvik to Venjanasetand where you continue your scenic drive to the Hardanger Fjord – the queen of the fjords. Near the village of Norheimsund, you'll make a stop for lunch and continue to the Steinsdal Waterfall. Here, the water falls away from the cliff enabling you to walk underneath without getting wet. What an exhilarating experience!

The golf course is the world's most northerly 18 hole golf course, according to the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews. This unique golf course is in a natural setting and provides a spectacular view of the surrounding countryside. Arctic Open is probably the most renowned tournaments held in Iceland during summer solstice. First held in 1986, this four-day championship event, open to international professional and amateur golfers, takes place at the Akureyri Golf Club, the most northerly 18-hole golf course in the world, beneath snow-capped mountains in the far north of Iceland, and the midnight sun. *Carts Included.*

#1 IN ICELAND: Keilir Golf Club

Keilir Golf Course is a links golf course placed in Hafnarfjordur town, 15 minutes from downtown Reykjavik. There is a vast difference between the front nine and the back nine. The front nine is surrounded by lava, and the back nine is placed on a small peninsula at the entrance into the Hafnarfjordur harbor, with spectacular views to Snafellsjokull glacier and the Alftanes peninsula. Keilir Golf Course is about skill and accuracy over power and distance, particularly when dealing with the lava field in the front nine!
